

Course Title: GCSE Sociology

Awarding Body: AQA

Further information available from: Mr Giles

Sociology is the study of Society and groups of people, it adds real understanding to a student's knowledge and the world around them.

Sociology equips students with knowledge and language to challenge their own beliefs and perceptions of Society, it furthers their understanding of Economic, Social and Political Powers.

Specific course areas are as follows –

1. The sociological approach
2. Social structures, social processes and social issues
3. Families
4. Education
5. Crime and deviance
6. Social stratification
7. Sociological research methods

Assessment – Two papers each with a written exam: 1 hour 45 minutes worth 100 marks.

Students must be prepared to give opinions about the world around them and have a desire to follow current affairs and news. The nature of the subject means that students need to be prepared to produce written notes to follow the course and produce work that can show balanced arguments.

A mature attitude to their studies is very important as the subject will look at their own views of life and cover topic areas that require thought and understanding.

The subject is very useful for students who want to work with people in the future. It links well with care professions, teaching, working with the law, media and social work.
