

Year 9 Curriculum Implementation Plan History Department

History
Knowledge and Skills – Students will be taught to...	Reading, Oracy, Literacy and Numeracy	Formative Assessment	Summative Assessment	Link to GCSE Content
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Evaluate the most significant causes of key events and investigate and articulate the most significant consequences. For example, the causes of WWI and the reasons why Hitler gained power</li> <li>Highlight examples of change and continuity across different historical periods, especially with reference to changes in society brought about by people, groups or events, such as the Women’s Suffrage Movement</li> <li>Expand on their understanding of Primary and Secondary Sources and be able to analyse them to form conclusions and opinions and understand that</li> </ul>	Reading <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>the department implements the school policy of incorporating reading time into the start of the lesson, this is sometimes subject specific and used as part of the starter activities</li> </ul> Yr 9 homework can take the form of extra reading to introduce, extend or consolidate topics covered in lessons as and when suitable, for example, as an introduction to Trench Life the students could read Primary Sources such as diary extracts or letters from soldiers The use of suitable sources in lessons will stretch and challenge students and will improve reading ability and comprehension	Questioning in lessons Whole class feedback during lessons Low stakes quizzing/low stakes writing, e.g. writing down their interpretations ready for feedback Student debates on causation and consequences and the skill of forming an opinion. For example ‘Was the Treaty of Versailles fair?’ Peer and self- assessment of written work, teacher assessment of classwork and homework Experience of exam style questions with guidance on structure/format	Official summative assessments that fit in with the school calendar for reporting data and data drops These assessments will have a strong focus on exam style questions As the students develop their written communication skills develop, the increased challenge of the exam format questions will help to push their understanding and skills further. For example, by developing the skill of reaching their own interpretations/opinions, not just stating facts	The questions set in summative assessments are GCSE style A range of activities used to develop good written communication skills to prepare students for the high literacy demands of GCSE History Feedback sessions used after assessments to scaffold further development

interpretations are formed using these source. For example, when studying the dropping of two nuclear bombs on Japan, students investigate the justification given at the time and form their own interpretations/opinions <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Continue to develop effective structures for written answers based around their own knowledge and the use of source material</li><li>• Expand and develop further the use of more complex forms of written communication; for example using second order concepts such as significance, cause, consequence, similarity and difference</li><li>• Continue to develop debating, discussion and listening skills and show empathy with other students and people from the past</li></ul>	Numeracy <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• the use of timelines and placing events in the correct chronological order, such as key battles in WWI or the build-up of persecution against Jewish people in the 1930's</li></ul> Using statistics, such as the unemployment figures in Nazi Germany will help to build numeracy skills when presenting evidence
	Oracy The use of key words Discussions/debates in class, like does Haig deserve the nickname The Butcher of the Somme? Student led presentations Directed questioning of students with encouragement to give further explanations

